

Must have reference

THE country's premier annual barometer is once again on the shelves. State of the Nation: South Africa 2005-2006 (HSRC Press), has become a standard reference for anyone wanting to get their heads around South Africa. This third edition also features some interesting chapters on our society such as our soccer troubles and the gun crisis.